

GUESS? HANDBAGS

Dear Jacob:

I usually do not take the time to write a thank you letter in the business world. However, in this case I was compelled to make an exception.

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for the terrific job you and your staff did for us on the purchase of our commercial property. Having only used your firm in the past for my residential loans, I found it quite impressive that you could handle a large commercial transaction with such ease. Your overall knowledge of the market place is tremendous.

I was equally impressed that you were able to locate and close a better loan for us than our own business bank was able to offer. Having done business with our core lenders for so many years, I never expected you to come through the way you did.

Thank you again for your assistance and for making this as smooth and easy as it was. Given my hectic work day, it was very reassuring to know that you were on top of things. I look forward to doing our next loan together.

Best regards,

Jason Rimokh
